The image shows the SpotWalla homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'SpotWalla' logo, 'Login', 'Register', 'Support', and a language selector. Below the navigation bar, there are several sections: 'Already have an Account?' with 'Login' and 'Forgot My Password' links; 'Want to Create an Account?' with a 'Register' button; 'Zoleo Support' with a message about Zoleo Satellite Communicator support; 'Looking For Something?' with 'Trips', 'Location Pages' (circled in red), and 'Animations' buttons; and a 'Newsletters' button. A central banner asks 'Are You an Old SpotWalla System User Looking for More Information? Click me.' Below this, there are four columns of feature highlights: 'Multi-Device Support', 'Secure Zones', 'Trips', and 'Location Pages' (circled in red). Each column has a title, an icon, a brief description, and a 'More' link. At the bottom, there are three more columns: 'Event Support', 'Friends', and 'Funding Your Account', each with a title, icon, description, and 'More' link. A 'Privacy - Terms' link is visible in the bottom right corner.

If you're not signed in to SpotWalla, you will need to do that now. Upon successful completion of the SpotWalla login you will receive the page shown below. Fill in the info:

- Join Password is 3Flags (case sensitive)
- Select which device will be used to provide your location (this list is specific to your SpotWalla ID, so most folks will only have one option)
- Choose a Location ID (a name for your position as shown on the location page). This can be anything, but we suggest limiting it to 8 characters since many IDs will be displayed on the location page
- Ignore the option to Hide Message Types
